CD recycling may not be free for long. The Canadian Private Copying Collective is proposing increasing the fee on reusable CD-R audio tapes and mp3 players. Customers may end up paying as little as $6 cents per reusable CD-R.

CD-Rs may become a lot more expensive

By ANDREW BISHOP

You download music off the Internet and burn the songs to CD-Rs for sharing. You also may be contributing to a big.

The Canadian Private Copying Collective has proposed increasing the fee on reusable CD-R audio tapes and mp3 players. If the Copyright Board of Canada agrees to the increase in the next customers could be paying 10 cents per reusable CD-R.

Currently, the proposed rates are 10 cents per reusable CD-R and 10 cents per mp3 player.

Currently, a reusable CD-R has a cost of 10 cents. If the proposed rates are 10 cents per reusable CD-R and 10 cents per mp3 player, the cost of a reusable CD-R could increase to 10 cents.

mp3 players would also be affected by the increase.

Currently, there is no limit on the number of mp3 players that they could have with a single sale.

The increase in mp3 player sales is a big problem for the music industry. The increase in mp3 player sales is a big problem for the music industry. The increase in mp3 player sales is a big problem for the music industry.

Dancing is in my blood

By DANIELA DANCYON

Dancing is something that I enjoy and it's one of my passions.

Since I was a little girl, I have been dancing. I have been dancing for many years. I have been dancing for many years. I have been dancing for many years. I have been dancing for many years.

When I started to dance, I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl. I was a little girl.

Now I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer. I am a professional dancer.

For those who don't know what dance is, it's a form of art.

Dance is a combination of many things. It's a combination of many things. It's a combination of many things. It's a combination of many things. It's a combination of many things.

It is a form of art that is a combination of many things. It is a form of art that is a combination of many things. It is a form of art that is a combination of many things. It is a form of art that is a combination of many things.

For the rest of the night, I will be dancing. I will be dancing. I will be dancing. I will be dancing. I will be dancing. I will be dancing. I will be dancing.
